Overview

Summary: The Bahamas is making strides in renewable energy with a new large-scale energy storage battery project currently under construction. This article explores the project's significance, technical specifications, and its potential to transform the Caribbean's energy. In the history of The Bahamas, this reform is guided by the understanding that energy is central to national development and that the longstanding failures in the electricity system have become too costly to ignore. For many years, Bahamian households and businesses have been burdened by high. Countries in the Caribbean are looking to deploy more affordable renewable energy and storage solutions while improving resilience against extreme weather events.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS — The technology group Wärtsilä will supply a 25MW / 27MWh advanced energy storage system for Bahamas Power and Light Company (BPL) to meet The Bahamas' spinning reserve requirements and significantly improve generation efficiency and system reliability for the island's grid.
